SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of : 1 year(s)

Term of supervised release shall run concurrent to each count.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions of supervision as well as with any special conditions of supervision set forth below:

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- (1) The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.
- (2) The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance, including marijuana, which remains illegal under federal law. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☐ The above drug testing is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
- (3) ☒ The defendant must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person, such as nunchakus or tasers.) (Check, if applicable.)
- (4) ☒ The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable, see 42 U.S.C. § 14135a(d)(all felonies, crimes under Ch. 109A, crimes of violence, and attempts or conspiracy to commit these crimes.))
- (5) ☐ The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which he or she resides, works, is a student, or was convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check, if applicable.)
- (6) ☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence if one exists within a 50-mile radius of defendant's legal residence. (Check, if applicable, see 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d) for defendants convicted of a domestic violence crime defined in § 3561(b).)
- (7) If this judgment imposes restitution, a fine, or special assessment, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment. The defendant shall notify the probation officer of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay any unpaid amount of restitution, fine, or special assessments.
- (8) The defendant must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where he or she is authorized to reside within 72 hours of release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer tells the defendant to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- (9) After initially reporting to the probation office, the defendant will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when to report to the probation officer, and the defendant must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- (10) The defendant must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where he or she is authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.

- (11) The defendant must be truthful when responding to the questions asked by the probation officer.
- (12) The defendant must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If the defendant plans to change where he or she lives or anything about his or her living arrangements (such as the people the defendant lives with), the defendant must notify the probation officer at least 10 calendar days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, the defendant must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- (13) The defendant must allow the probation officer to visit the defendant at reasonable times at his or her home or elsewhere, and the defendant must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of the defendant's supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- (14) The defendant must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses the defendant from doing so. If the defendant does not have full-time employment he or she must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses the defendant from doing so. If the defendant plans to change where the defendant works or anything about his or her work (such as the position or the job responsibilities), the defendant must notify the probation officer at least 10 calendar days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, the defendant must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- (15) The defendant must not communicate or interact with someone the defendant knows is engaged in criminal activity. If the defendant knows someone has been convicted of a felony, the defendant must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- (16) If the defendant is arrested or has any official contact with a law enforcement officer in a civil or criminal investigative capacity, the defendant must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- (17) The defendant must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- (18) The defendant must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

CASE NUMBER: 2:15CR00059-RMP-1

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

(19) The defendant shall complete a mental health evaluation and follow any treatment recommendations of the evaluating professional which do not require forced or psychotropic medication and/or inpatient confinement, absent further order of the court. The defendant shall allow reciprocal release of information between the supervising officer and treatment provider. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to his ability to pay.

(20) So long as restitution is owing, the defendant shall provide the supervising officer with access to any requested financial information, including authorization to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of your federal income tax returns. The defendant shall disclose all assets and liabilities to the supervising officer. The defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset, without the advance approval of the supervising officer.

(21) The defendant shall furnish financial information to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), in order to determine taxes owing. The defendant shall file all delinquent and current tax returns as required by law. The defendant shall pay any outstanding tax liability once assessed, including interest and penalties, either through lump sum or installment payments as approved by the IRS. The defendant shall provide a copy of any payment agreement to the supervising officer. The defendant shall allow reciprocal release of information between the supervising officer and the IRS.

(22) So long as restitution is owing, the defendant shall not incur any new personal debt, open additional personal lines of credit, or enter into any personal financial contracts, without the advance approval of the supervising officer.

(23) If the defendant poses a risk to another person or an organization, the probation officer may seek permission from the court to require the defendant to notify that person or organization about the risk. If the court approves, the defendant must provide the notification. The probation officer may contact the person or organization to confirm that the defendant has provided the proper notification.

(24) The defendant shall cooperate with the Examination and Collection Divisions of the IRS.

(25) The defendant shall provide to the Examination Division all financial information necessary to determine the defendant's prior tax liabilities.

(26) The defendant shall provide to the Collection Division all financial information necessary to determine the defendant's ability to pay.

(27) The defendant shall file accurate and complete tax returns for those years in which returns were not filed or for which inaccurate returns were filed.

(28) The defendant shall make a good faith effort to pay all delinquent and additional taxes, interest, and penalties for the tax years 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, and 2010, for Zazz Inc., Bella Constructions Inc., and the defendant's individual income tax returns.
